Re: Navarro & Dahi v. Bruckner Forever Young Social Adult Day Care Inc, et al.
Docket No. 15-CV-00064 (AJP)

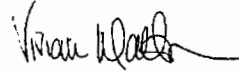

SO ORDERED:
Hon. Andrew Jay Peck
United States Magistrate Judge
Cory A. P. [Signature]

Dear Judge Peck:

As the Court knows, we represent the Plaintiffs, Angel Navarro, Evelyn Dahi, Rafael Ramirez and Wilkins Martinez, as well as the eighteen individuals (all, collectively, as "Plaintiffs") who had opted-in to this wage and hour matter that the Court conditionally certified as a Fair Labor Standards Act collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). On October 2, 2015, the parties wrote to the Court indicating that we agreed to settle this matter for a Rule 23 class instead of for the collective, and were then working on finalizing the details of this agreement. The parties offered a November 2, 2015 date by which to have the motion finalized, and this Court approved that request. See Docket No. 88. The parties have conferred, however, and concluded that we need more time to complete this submission. Thus, we jointly request an extension of thirty days to submit the motion for preliminary approval of the settlement to this Court, by on or before December 2, 2015. This is the first request for an extension of the date to submit this motion. The parties apologize as we know that the Court would have preferred to receive the motion sooner rather than later, but we assure Your Honor that we are working diligently to finalize this motion.

We thank the Court for its attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Vivian Walton", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
